Hello <<First Name>> and Happy Thanksgiving!

Today, I am grateful to be with my friends in Davis, CA, to celebrate Thanksgiving. This holiday has a special place in my heart as it is also an important anniversary: the day I landed in the US many years ago.

This holiday is the day we enjoy being together, drinking fantastic wines, and eating flavorful meals that we were all hands preparing together.

This day is also an opportunity to reflect on the past year.

I am thankful that you allow me to share my passion for wine and education with you, and especially for the positive feedback you send me.

THANK YOU.

You may wonder, does she offer anything special for Black Friday?

Yes, I do.
